

THE PLACERVILLE REPUBLICAN

Published Every Evening except Saturdays, Sundays and Legal Holidays
Entered as second-class matter at the Post Office, at Placerville Calif.
under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879
MANCIE H. VAUGHT, Business and Advertising Manager
C. E. BARKER, Lessee-Publisher VERNON E. ALLEN, Editor

Crossword Puzzle

By J. M. MORRIS

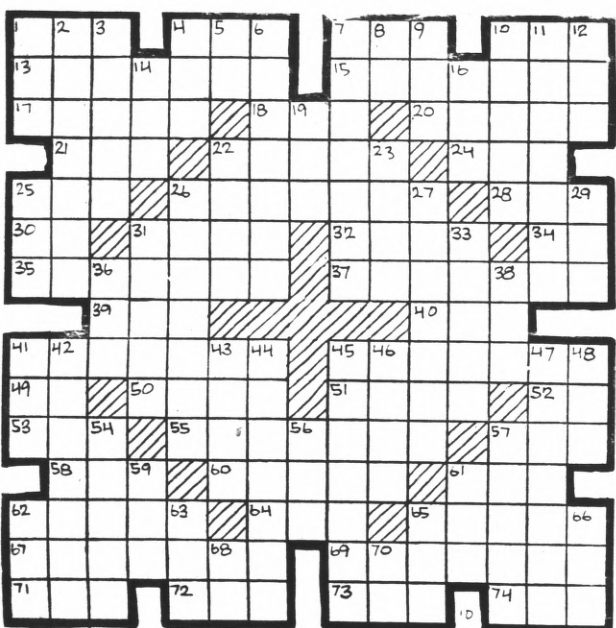

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

ACROSS

- Point
- Exist
- Cook in fat
- Gauding freely
- Conducting
- Pertaining to prison
- Edible tuber
- Make cloth
- Fishing pole
- Grave
- Drink
- Unhappy
- Seniors (abbr.)
- Old Testament (abbr.)
- Bin on
- Gain
- In this way
- European bet
- Farmer
- Knit his title
- Hardened
- Sows again
- Herbert letter
- Back
- Hair
- Zeus beloved
- Inset
- Visionary
- Manuscripts (abbr.)
- Stitch
- Loaded
- Fish eggs
- Exposed to public
- Hurried
- Subtle emanations

DOWN

- Be the matter
- British navy (abbr.)
- Self-critical one
- Thrasher
- Concerning
- Steer wildly
- Indicators
- Contrary
- Era
- Unit of light
- Goldsmith (abbr.)
- President Corbridge
- Summit
- Close to one's heart
- Entangled
- Bonus
- Turf
- Willow
- Backs of necks
- Peer Gilt's mother
- Stain
- Watering place
- Pulling force
- English land
- More gloomy
- Equal
- Sickness
- Distress call
- Blot
- Cris name
- Sound one
- Post
- Prevenge
- Abuse card
- Crying
- Imitate
- Parent
- Siberian river

Copyright 1937 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

Meet Me at MIDNIGHT

RUTH LOUISE AYERS

© 1939 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

Garret Cassidy and Caroline Jay love each other but, because he is a poolroom loafer, Caroline's mother has forbidden her to see him. They manage, however, to meet secretly. Mrs. Jay, superintendent of the Avon Home for the Aged, has high hopes for her daughter and is glad that Henry Avon, a wealthy young man, is interested in Caroline. Mrs. Jay knows a hard life at the Home. The withered lives around her all depend on her strength. Among her charges is Miss Hettie Pfenniger, who is dying and has refused to see or forgive old Mr. Martin, who long ago broke her heart and is now also living at the Home.

He had begged forgiveness but, unrepentant she had sent him away.

CHAPTER IV
MRS. JAY heard old Mr. Martin's feet scraping along the hallway and braced herself for the interview.

Mr. Martin started to speak. But his lips merely twitched. He nodded and shuffled out.

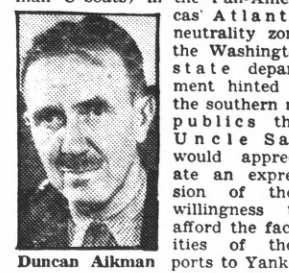

A LONG TIME ago, when Foster Martin had been the spend-

WHAT'S WHAT AT A GLANCE

WASHINGTON - WORLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

STORIES BEING current of the presence of more belligerent European warcraft (particularly German U-boats) in the Pan-American Atlantic zone, the Washington state department hinted to the southern re-

Duncan Aikman

publics that Uncle Sam would appreciate an expression of their willingness to afford the facilities of their ports to Yankee fighting ships assigned to the job of policing the zone against these overseas vessels.

Replies from the Latin countries have been uniformly acquiescent. In a case or two, outright invitations have been extended to Uncle Samuel to make himself at home in the Latin world's waters.

This is a rare testimonial to the success of Rooseveltian "good neighbor" policies.

I lived in the Argentine republic when the United States entered the last World War. President Wilson wanted to give an appearance to Pan-American solidarity to our declaration. Accordingly he dispatched to the Central, Insular and South American countries a cruiser squadron under Admiral William B. Caperton, at the same time indicating to their various governments that he expected Caperton's fleet to visit them.

This was all right, say as to Brazil, which nominally (no actual fighting) was at war with Germany. But Argentina preferred to stay neutral. Consequently President Irigoyen said his nation couldn't entertain such company beyond the recognized 24-hour limit.

U. S. Defied Neutrality

For the United States to have agreed to such an arrangement would have implied that Pan-American solidarity wasn't so solid. Therefore, doubtless under orders from home, Caperton put into Buenos Aires, and stayed for two weeks, in defiance of Argentine neutrality Argentina couldn't do anything about it. It was not strong enough. But WAS Argentina sore! What country wouldn't have been?

While our squadron was there its bluejackets couldn't even be granted shore leave, lest they be mobbed and create an international "incident." It's notorious that the Argentine Republic has liked us least of the Latin Americas since then.

I don't contend that Woodrow Wilson was the most undiplomatic of our presidents in his dealings with Latin America. Several of his predecessors were just as bad, or worse.

President Hoover's attitude was definitely. Hoover was as truly Pan-American as President Roosevelt has been. Hoover's weakness was that he wasn't as sociably spoken as President Roosevelt has been. He didn't speak in the "My Friends" tone of voice that F. D. R. has used so effectively.

Latin America loves that "My Friends" stuff.

"The All-American Front"

Duncan Aikman issued a book lately called "The All-American Front."

Aikman doesn't know as much on any single spot in Latin America as I know about the single spot that I happened to live in—the Argentine Republic. But he knows the whole situation—from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn. He averages them.

His dope is that we've GOT to get "acquainted." But it will be a hard task, he surmises.

Oh, he concedes that the current administration has made progress. "But will we keep it up?" he questions.

Continuing, says Expert Aikman, "A concert of friendly nations can be built up in the western hemisphere only by reconciling the incompatibilities of races different in values, in customs, at ways of looking at life, by every factor of economic circumstance and of historic inheritance."

Concluding quite a long book, Author Aikman sums up, "We must either enslave Latin America or see others enslave it; or preserve its freedom with ours by winning its immeasurably difficult friendship."

I asked Aikman how long he thought it would take.

"Five hundred years," he guessed at.

Anna C. Nicholson, also known as Anna Nicholson, deceased, and for Hearing Petition for Letters of Administration with the Will Annexed Thereon

No.

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of El Dorado.

In the Matter of the Estate of ANNA C. NICHOLSON, also known as ANNA NICHOLSON, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Friday the 8th day of March A. D. 1940, at 10:00 o'clock A. M. of said day, and the court room of the above entitled court, at the court house, in the County of El Dorado, State of California, have been appointed as the time and place of proving the will of said ANNA C. NICHOLSON, deceased, and for hearing the application of HULDA REIMERS for the issuance to her of Letters of Administration with the Will Annexed thereon when and where any person interested may appear and contest the same.

Dated: Placerville, February 21st, 1940.

ARTHUR J. KOLETZKE, Clerk.

By V. H. BENSON, Deputy Clerk.

HENRY H. IRWIN, Attorney for Petitioners, Central Bank Bldg., Oakland, California.

First publication Feb. 21-10t-dly-Mar. 6-Placerville Republican.

Public Notice

Notice of Time for Proving Will of thrift young son of one of the first families of the city, he had been in love with a certain girl. She had been the prettiest brown-eyed governess in his brother's home. But he hadn't loved her quite enough at first to ask her to marry him.

Not until they had quarreled bitterly and he had gone away had he come sharply to a realization of how much he loved her. He had gone after her and begged her forgiveness. But unrepentant she had sent him away.

And now for almost five years they had been residents of the Avon Home without seeing or speaking to each other. They had both told Mrs. Jay about the long-ago romance. They'd both secretly wanted to swallow their pride. But Mr. Martin had hesitated about having Hettie Pfenniger see him with his twisted face. And Miss Pfenniger, looking into her mirror and failing to find one vestige of her girlhood self in her thin, wrinkled face had not had the courage for a reunion.

When she had become ill, Mr. Martin had made a special trip every day to Mrs. Jay's office to inquire about her. Mrs. Jay had said, decisively "As soon as she better you two are going to get together. This nonsense has kept up long enough!"

But Miss Pfenniger had no grown better—and the vanity in her, which had made her hesitate about seeing Foster Martin when she was able to primp up a bit, made her doubly determined not to see him with her hair straggling and her cheeks chalk-like. Now it was too late.

Mrs. Jay tried to push the matter from her mind and busy herself with an account book.

AS SHE concentrated on the figures she heard the shuffling feet again. Mr. Martin was coming back. She deliberately did not lift her eyes from the ledger.

And then she saw a note being slipped onto her desk. Still she did not glance up—not until the footsteps had died away again.

When she read the note, tear welled in her eyes. Mr. Martin had written:

My dear Mrs. Jay—I know you have done everything you could to help me, for which I want to thank you. But there is one favor more I would like to beseech of you. When Hettie Pfenniger dies and is taken to the chapel, may be the first to see her? I would like to go in alone.

Mrs. Jay's face had suddenly become unbearably hot. Leaning her arms on the desk she buried her face in them.

The telephone at her elbow rang. But Martha Jay did not lift her head—somehow could not reach for the receiver.

"I need a vacation," she thought. "I need to get away from here."

The telephone bell became impatient.

(To be continued)

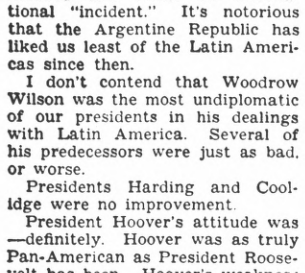

(The characters in this story are fictitious)

WHAT'S WHAT AT A GLANCE

WASHINGTON - WORLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

STORIES BEING current of the presence of more belligerent European warcraft (particularly German U-boats) in the Pan-American Atlantic zone, the Washington state department hinted to the southern re-

Duncan Aikman

publics that Uncle Sam would appreciate an expression of their willingness to afford the facilities of their ports to Yankee fighting ships assigned to the job of policing the zone against these overseas vessels.

Replies from the Latin countries have been uniformly acquiescent. In a case or two, outright invitations have been extended to Uncle Samuel to make himself at home in the Latin world's waters.

This is a rare testimonial to the success of Rooseveltian "good neighbor" policies.

I lived in the Argentine republic when the United States entered the last World War. President Wilson wanted to give an appearance to Pan-American solidarity to our declaration. Accordingly he dispatched to the Central, Insular and South American countries a cruiser squadron under Admiral William B. Caperton, at the same time indicating to their various governments that he expected Caperton's fleet to visit them.

This was all right, say as to Brazil, which nominally (no actual fighting) was at war with Germany. But Argentina preferred to stay neutral. Consequently President Irigoyen said his nation couldn't entertain such company beyond the recognized 24-hour limit.

U. S. Defied Neutrality

For the United States to have agreed to such an arrangement would have implied that Pan-American solidarity wasn't so solid. Therefore, doubtless under orders from home, Caperton put into Buenos Aires, and stayed for two weeks, in defiance of Argentine neutrality Argentina couldn't do anything about it. It was not strong enough. But WAS Argentina sore! What country wouldn't have been?

While our squadron was there its bluejackets couldn't even be granted shore leave, lest they be mobbed and create an international "incident." It's notorious that the Argentine Republic has liked us least of the Latin Americas since then.

I don't contend that Woodrow Wilson was the most undiplomatic of our presidents in his dealings with Latin America. Several of his predecessors were just as bad, or worse.

President Hoover's attitude was definitely. Hoover was as truly Pan-American as President Roosevelt has been. Hoover's weakness was that he wasn't as sociably spoken as President Roosevelt has been. He didn't speak in the "My Friends" tone of voice that F. D. R. has used so effectively.

Latin America loves that "My Friends" stuff.

"The All-American Front"

Duncan Aikman issued a book lately called "The All-American Front."

Aikman doesn't know as much on any single spot in Latin America as I know about the single spot that I happened to live in—the Argentine Republic. But he knows the whole situation—from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn. He averages them.

His dope is that we've GOT to get "acquainted." But it will be a hard task, he surmises.

Oh, he concedes that the current administration has made progress. "But will we keep it up?" he questions.

Continuing, says Expert Aikman, "A concert of friendly nations can be built up in the western hemisphere only by reconciling the incompatibilities of races different in values, in customs, at ways of looking at life, by every factor of economic circumstance and of historic inheritance."

Concluding quite a long book, Author Aikman sums up, "We must either enslave Latin America or see others enslave it; or preserve its freedom with ours by winning its immeasurably difficult friendship."

I asked Aikman how long he thought it would take.

"Five hundred years," he guessed at.

Anna C. Nicholson, also known as Anna Nicholson, deceased, and for Hearing Petition for Letters of Administration with the Will Annexed Thereon

No.

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of El Dorado.

In the Matter of the Estate of ANNA C. NICHOLSON, also known as ANNA NICHOLSON, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Friday the 8th day of March A. D. 1940, at 10:00 o'clock A. M. of said day, and the court room of the above entitled court, at the court house, in the County of El Dorado, State of California, have been appointed as the time and place of proving the will of said ANNA C. NICHOLSON, deceased, and for hearing the application of HULDA REIMERS for the issuance to her of Letters of Administration with the Will Annexed thereon when and where any person interested may appear and contest the same.

Dated: Placerville, February 21st, 1940.

ARTHUR J. KOLETZKE, Clerk.

By V. H. BENSON, Deputy Clerk.

HENRY H. IRWIN, Attorney for Petitioners, Central Bank Bldg., Oakland, California.

First publication Feb. 21-10t-dly-Mar. 6-Placerville Republican.

Public Notice

Notice of Time for Proving Will of thrift young son of one of the first families of the city, he had been in love with a certain girl. She had been the prettiest brown-eyed governess in his brother's home. But he hadn't loved her quite enough at first to ask her to marry him.

Not until they had quarreled bitterly and he had gone away had he come sharply to a realization of how much he loved her. He had gone after her and begged her forgiveness. But unrepentant she had sent him away.

And now for almost five years they had been residents of the Avon Home without seeing or speaking to each other. They had both told Mrs. Jay about the long-ago romance. They'd both secretly wanted to swallow their pride. But Mr. Martin had hesitated about having Hettie Pfenniger see him with his twisted face. And Miss Pfenniger, looking into her mirror and failing to find one vestige of her girlhood self in her thin, wrinkled face had not had the courage for a reunion.

When she had become ill, Mr. Martin had made a special trip every day to Mrs. Jay's office to inquire about her. Mrs. Jay had said, decisively "As soon as she better you two are going to get together. This nonsense has kept up long enough!"

But Miss Pfenniger had no grown better—and the vanity in her, which had made her hesitate about seeing Foster Martin when she was able to primp up a bit, made her doubly determined not to see him with her hair straggling and her cheeks chalk-like. Now it was too late.

Mrs. Jay tried to push the matter from her mind and busy herself with an account book.

AS SHE concentrated on the figures she heard the shuffling feet again. Mr. Martin was coming back. She deliberately did not lift her eyes from the ledger.

And then she saw a note being slipped onto her desk. Still she did not glance up—not until the footsteps had died away again.

When she read the note, tear welled in her eyes. Mr. Martin had written:

My dear Mrs. Jay—I know you have done everything you could to help me, for which I want to thank you. But there is one favor more I would like to beseech of you. When Hettie Pfenniger dies and is taken to the chapel, may be the first to see her? I would like to go in alone.

Mrs. Jay's face had suddenly become unbearably hot. Leaning her arms on the desk she buried her face in them.

The telephone at her elbow rang. But Martha Jay did not lift her head—somehow could not reach for the receiver.

"I need a vacation," she thought. "I need to get away from here."

The telephone bell became impatient.

(To be continued)

(The characters in this story are fictitious)

ON THE AIR TONIGHT

5 to 6 p. m.

KFBK—Gordon's Rangers; 5:30 Pot O' Gold.

KROY—Paul Carson Orch; 5:15 News; 5:30 Quartet; 5:45 Happy Dan; 4:45 Bob Trout.

KSFO—News; 5:15 Dreams; 5:30 Court of Missing Heirs; 5:55 News.

KPO—Aldrich Family; 5:30 Horace Heidt Pot O'Gold Program.

KGO—News; 5:15 Tom Mix; 5:30 Sherlock Holmes.

KSFO—Studio; 5:15 David Adams; 5:30 Jack Armstrong; 5:30 Orphan Annie.

6 to 7 p. m.

KFBK—The American Cavalcade; 6:30 Fibber McGee and Molly.

KROY—Dick Auerand; 6:30 Concert in Rhythm.

KSFO—Contrasts in Rhythm; 6:15 Let's Talk Art; 6:30 Rhythm Concert.

KPO—See KFBK Program; 6:30 Fibber McGee and Molly.

KGO—Time and Tempo; 6:30 Phenomenon; 6:45 Aloha Land.

KPRC—Shafter Parker; 6:15 Announced; 6:30 John B. Hughes; 6:45 Paging the Past.

7 to 8 p. m.

KFBK—Information Please; 7:30 Doghouse.

KROY—Glenn Miller; 7:15 Americans at Work Program; 7:45 Jimmy Grier.

KSFO—Glenn Miller; 7:15 Americans at Work; 7:45 Sports.

KPO—Bob Hope; 7:30 Uncle Walter's Dog House.

KGO—Roy Shields Program; 7:30 Mammoth Minstrels.

KPRC—Toronto Symphony; 7:15 Sports; 7:30 Secret Agent.

8 to 9 p. m.

KFBK—Pleasure Time; 8:15 Beyond Reasonable Doubt; 8:30 Johnny Presents.

KROY—184th Infantry Band; 8:30 Records; 8:45 Garwood Van.

KSFO—Amos and Andy; 8:15 Jimmy Fidler; 8:30 Big Town.

9 to 10 p. m.

KFBK—Crossword Puzzles; 9:15 Don't You Believe It; 9:30 Battle of the Sexes.

KROY—We the People; 9:30 Ray Herbeck.

KSFO—We the People; 9:30 Herbeck.

KPO—Garwood Van; 9:30 See KFBK.

KGO—Beyond Reasonable Doubt; 9:15 Count Basie; 9:30 Jan Savitt; 9:45 University Explorer.

KPRC—News; 9:15 Stories; 9:30 Dance Music; 9:45 Orchestra.

10 to 11 p. m.

KFBK—News; 10:15 Horace Heidt; 10:30 Eddie Fitzpatrick.

KROY—Records; 10:15 Claude Hopkins; 10:30 Herbie Kay; 10:45 Nightcap Yarns.

KSFO—News; 10:30 Halan Lenard; 10:30 Orchestra.

KPO—News; 10:15 Concert Hall; 10:30 Chuck Foster; 10:45 Herb Saman.

KGO—Meet Mr. Weeks; 10:30 Bob Saunders.

KPRC—Nick Stuart; 10:30 Skinny Ennis.

11 p. m. to midnight

KFBK—Carl Ravazza; 11:30 Ray Noble Orchestra; 11:45 News.

KROY—See KSFO; 11:30 Manny Strand.

KSFO—Vincent Lopez; 11:30 See KROY.

KGO—Carl Ravazza; 11:30 Ray Noble.

KGO—News; 11:15 Music; 11:45 Organ.

KPRC—News; 11:15 Music by Transcriptions.

Six Hits and a Miss; 11:45 12 to 12:30 a. m.

KROY—Midnight Review.

SPURS FLYING

MARACAY, Venezuela. (AP) — A government-sponsored school of Civil Aviation has recently been opened here. Entrance is not restricted, and for a moderate fee the school will teach young Venezuelans to fly.

Showing the first signs of wakening from its winter hibernation, the New York World's Fair prepares for the 1940 opening by giving the Trylon a new coat. The old covering was damaged by the wind.

READ THE WANT ADS

ORDI- EME- INC- MI- AT- AL- ST- CO- MU- The Place ordi- here- exists- cauti- order- bies- lawfu- of th- or pe- pora- to be- or wa- less m- and u- or ot- custo- Sec- adopt- be u- perso- ation- publi- in th- Sec- runn- street- place- be ta- ment- destr- Sec- sons, tion Ord- dem- there- of no Dolla- ment- son by or by ment. Sec- hereb- ist. a great health- an e- amon- munit- adopt- sary v- emer- prote-

When in need of professional or specialized business service of any kind, consult this directory and here you will find listed the leading professional and business firms of El Dorado County

H. E. HOLLENBECK, D. C.

Chiropractor

PALMER GRADUATE

CLASSIFIED

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

(count 5 words to a line)
 10c per line for one insertion.
 15c per line for three insertions.
 25c per line for (week) 6 insertions.
 35c per line for (2 weeks) 12 insertions.
 50c per line for (month) 24 insertions.

TERMS—CASH IN ADVANCE

Telephone customers with "established credit" with this office may phone in their ads, making arrangements to pay before the end of the month, thus getting the cash-in-advance rate. However, if the charge account runs past the end of the month, necessitating sending of a statement, a minimum charge of 50c will be made in ALL CASES.

BUY PLACERVILLE

17 ACRES on highway near Pville. Electricity, oak trees, water. $1250

A. C. (GUS) WINKELMAN
 with
 L. J. ANDERSON
 Real Estate Insurance

FOR RENT

3 RM furn cottage, garage, refrig., water, laundry. Close to town. J. W. Rice, Smiths Flat. m5-8*

FURN house Coloma St. 4 rms and bath. Ph. 25F2. m5-tfc.

LARGE modern 2 rm furn. apt. $16. Ask at Howe's Grocery. m5-12*

ROOM priv. family Ph. 314W. m528

5 RM. Unfurn. cottage and garage to married couple, no children. Central location. Ph. 248W. m4-11c

FURNISHED 2 room cabin with bath, 55 Reservoir St. 4m-11

FURN. hse. 5 rooms, laundry, garage. lot nr. H. S. Ph 217W. f293tc

ROOM priv. ent. 116 Bedford. f20ftc

UNFURN. 6-rm. hse. on Garden St. Inquire 22 Circus St. or Phone 112. f1-tfc.

LARGE house with yard, good location. Inquire 23 Hazard St. Ph. 797. j31-tfc

FURN. Duplex, 3 rms. Adults only. 126 Main St. Apply large house. j2tfc.

2 RM. furn cabin with water and garage. Ph. 66W. f21tfc.

FURN. Apt. Adults only 25 Coloma Street. a29tfc

$21.00 3 rm. furn house.

$25.00 3 rm. furn house

$16.00 2 rm. furn house

A. C. (Gus) Winkelman with
 L. J. ANDERSON
 Real Estate Insurance

COTTAGE partly furn. $14.00 lights and water. Meridian Heights, end of Coloma St. Geo. Bishop. m1tfc

IN TOWN 7 rm. house furn. hot and cold water in each room, 4 bed rooms upstairs. Rent reasonable to permanent tenants. No small children. Apply 11 Cary St. f21tfc

3 RM. Furn. apt. Hot and cold water, garage. 67 Coloma St. j23tfc

FURN house 4 rooms and bath, garage. $18.00 Swingles, Ph. 41F2. f18-m1*

MISCELLANEOUS

LEARN the art of making all wool hooked rugs for your home in six lessons. (Special price). Rugs for sale. Mrs. Stewart, 579 Main St. m4-6*

YOURS FREE! If you'll haul it away. Plenty of first class top soil. 133 Canal St., Phone 461.

RUNNING A BUSINESS
 LIKE MINE IS JUST
 ONE CONTINUAL ROUND
 OF PLEASURE AND
 ENJOYMENT—NOW
 YOU TELL ONE!

DRIVE IN
 for
 PERSONALIZED
 SERVICE

Look what happens in five thousand miles of driving... Spark Plug wires deliver 675,000,000 volts—Spark Plugs fire 45,000,000 times—No wonder they burn out.

DELL CHENEY

Your Smiling Associated Dealer
 Main and Bridge Streets
 GAS—OIL—LUBRICATION
 TIRES—BATTERIES
 Cars Washed and Polished

REAL ESTATE WANTED

RANCHES, HOMES, WANTED!!
 We furnish buyers. LIST with Mrs. KELLER, Pacific St. Tel. 150-W.

BARGAIN—185 ft. new 4-in. Standard sewer pipe, 28c per ft. SEE MRS. KELLER, Clark & Pacific Sts. phone 150-W. m1-3tc.

WANTED

RELIABLE MAN with car for Rawleigh Route. 200 easily sold household necessities. We teach you how; supply Sales, Advertising literature. See J. W. Weiss, Berry Hotel, Sacto, 8th and L, Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. m5-8c.

HAVE long lease on desirable business property. Want to borrow $5,000 at 6 pct interest for building purposes. Write "Wanted" ad, Bin B, Placerville. m4-6*

TO LEASE small fruit ranch with buildings and equipment. Will care for and give part crop for rent. Local references. Write "Wanted" ad, Bin B, Placerville. m4-6*

ROOM AND BOARD

ROOM and board for gentleman. Ph. 592. j11-tfc.

Rescue Club

Meeting was called to order Mar. 2, at Deer Valley school by President John Tackett. Those members present gave a report on their projects.

According to the secretary the club has an enrollment of 44 and each is planning to start his project in the near future.

There was a discussion on the all-star members, Shirley Dixon and Vinton Veerkamp, Jr., who are delegates from this county to the conference at Berkeley.

The club did not decide what to take up as a community project this year, although there were a few good suggestions. They will, however, keep up the signs and make new ones for those who enter the community.

Plans for the dance at Rescue are well under way and all are looking forward to a good time. The price will be 40 cents for the gents and 10 cents for the ladies. The date and place, which you don't want to forget—March 9th at the Rescue Hall. —Club Reporter.

GLAMOUR DOWN

NEW ORLEANS. (UP)—New Orleans beauty parlor operators have built a floor under the price for glamour. Under a code adopted by a majority of the local beauty shop owners, a minimum of $3.50 can be charged for a permanent wave, 50 cents for shampoos and sets, and 50 cents for a manicure.

CARD PARTY

At El Dorado, Wednesday, March 6th. Cash door prize. m4-6*

"REMEMBER?" OPENS AT EMPIRE TUESDAY FOR 2-DAY SHOWING

Greer Garson, the red-haired, green-eyed Irish actress who is the most talked of newcomer in Hollywood as the result of her memorable performance of Kathie in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," has been starred with Robert Taylor in her first American film, of modern married life, which comes to the Empire Theatre on Tuesday for an engagement of two days.

Born in County Down in the North of Ireland, on September 29, Miss Garson defied family tradition to become an actress. On both sides of her family was composed of academic types, parsons, doctors and elders of the kirk. She was to have been a school teacher and encouraged this course of action by winning several school and university scholarships. As a child she won many prizes for recitations, concert work and amateur dramatics but was discouraged from going on the stage because she lacked money and friends in the theatre.

Following her graduation from the University of London, Miss Garson went briefly into business, being employed by a large London advertising firm to conduct an information bureau and do market research. The actress sister of a friendly employee gave her a letter to the manager of the famous Birmingham Repertory Theatre, which made it possible for Miss Garson to realize her ambition. Convincing the manager with her eagerness and assurance that she could act if given the chance, she was cast as Shirley Kaplan in "Street Scene" and scored a hit. After two seasons of leading parts at Birmingham she toured the provinces in George Bernard Shaw's "Too Good to Be True."

Where Next President Will Be Nominated

The next president of the United States will be nominated in one of the two places shown above: Chicago stadium, where the Democratic national convention will be held, and the Philadelphia convention hall where the Republicans will meet, beginning June 24. Democrats will meet at a later date.

Also pictured are James Farley, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee. President Roosevelt was nominated in Chicago in 1932 and renominated in Philadelphia in 1936.

Coloma Center Told Of Business Outlook

The business outlook, with special relation to agriculture, was the topic on which George Eberhard, of Col., addressed the Coloma Farm center at its meeting Monday night at the Coloma Community Hall.

The interest in Mr. Eberhard's talk was demonstrated by the fact that following the meeting several remained to talk with him more extensively on the subject.

Reports by department chairmen reviewed the work of the center. The news reel picture was of war scenes in China.

FOREST HEADQUARTERS HAS NEW SIGN, MADE BY CCC ENROLLEES

The galvanized iron sign designating Edorado Forest headquarters, which has been suspended over the entrance to the offices for many years, was displaced Tuesday morning by a new sign made of sugar pine, stained, with gilt lettering.

The lettering was routed out of the boards and then gilted and is a very attractive job.

The sign was made at the Forest Service warehouse by CCC enrollees under the direction of Joseph Schwartz, warehouseman, and is one of several directional and camp ground signs of the same type made by the enrollees during the winter which will be set up in the early Spring throughout the forest.

The City Council Monday night approved the erection of a reflector-type sign at the top of Sacramento Hill, which will be visible at night as well as by day, calling attention to the advisability of shifting into second gear in descending the hill.

NEWS PERSONALS

Mrs. Helen Giffen was a caller on Tuesday from Shingle.

Clarence Scheiber was a visitor Monday from Shingle Springs.

Harry Grigge and Miss Mary Grigge were callers in Placerville Monday from Shingle Springs.

Duncan J. Bathurst applied to the city council Monday night for permission to erect four tourist cottages within 1,000 feet of the existing fire zone.

RANCH CABIN DESTROYED IN FIRE MONDAY EVENING

The Mt. Danaher Division of Forestry fire crew answered its second alarm of the calendar year on Monday evening when fire destroyed a cabin and tool shed, all in one building, at the Sierra View Farm of Mrs. Ida M. Frazier, six miles east of Placerville on Highway 50.

The fire broke out about seven o'clock in the evening and the state firemen were assisted by the Michigan-California Lumber Company truck and fire crew in fighting the flames.

City Clerk's Salary Pegged At $135

The city council Monday night passed an ordinance establishing the salary of the city clerk at $135 per month. City Clerk Esther Mahler said that the ordinance does not change the amount of pay but simply fixes the amount, which was thought advisable since the salary is paid out of several different city funds.

LEGION AUXILIARY HAS NEWLY ORGANIZED DRILL TEAM

The newly organized drill team of the American Legion Auxiliary assisted in the opening and the closing ceremonies at the regular meeting of the unit on Tuesday evening of last week.

The regular committee reports were heard. Mrs. Edith Rantz reported for Mrs. Adrienne Liddicoet, who had been ill and was unable to attend the meeting, stating that 62 essays were received from the high school in the Americanism essay contest. The essays are on the subject, "What It Means to Me to be an American." The essays will be judged and the winning paper forwarded to the district chairman.

Mrs. Rantz, who is also Poppy chairman, reported there will be a Poppy Poster contest again this year. One thousand poppies were ordered. These are made by disabled veterans and sold on Poppy Day in May.

Mrs. Ruby Wright and Lulu Cook reported on the district meeting held Feb. 11 at Carmichael. The next district meeting will be held in Placerville April 14th.

Five new members were initiated, Mrs. June Chemnitz, Mrs. Alice Juster, Mrs. Ruth Edwards, Mrs. Alma Clifton and Miss Donez Edwards.

The members in the drill team who assisted in the initiation were Ruby Wright, captain, Mrs. Jessie Watts, Mrs. Doris Young, Mrs. Laura Pierson, Mrs. Mary Maul, Mrs. Wilma Larson, Mrs. Mary Perschke, Mrs. Lyla Smith, Mrs.

SAILORS TAKE GIN

LONDON. (UP)—Polish sailors on destroyers serving in the British navy now prefer gin to vodka because it is less fiery. So they have evolved a "pin gin" of their own. It is drunk neat with a couple of dashes of red pepper, instead of bitters.

Edna Simpson, and Mrs. Marjorie Peterson, sergeant-at-arms and Frances Delaney, marshal. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Agnes Schiff.

EMPIRE

Today and Wednesday

ROBERT TAYLOR

GREER GARSON

"REMEMBER?"

LEW AYRES

Directed by Norman Krasna

PLUS

JACKIE COOPER

Streets of

New York

Off to the snow
 this week-end?

Your telephone will gather your party, make sure of accommodations. Telephoning is the quick, friendly, personal way of arranging things, talking them over, making everything sure. And a telephone will be near by in the ski region to carry your voice home.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

525 Main Street — Telephone 142

"Make a date to try Acme Beer
 ...and enjoy the refreshment-thrill of your life! Acme Beer satisfies
 ...provides inimitably pale and extra dry zest. That's why Acme has been the West's best-seller ever since Repeal. Quality Wins
 Again!"

PLACERVILLE COCA COLA BOTTLING WORKS, Distributor